

Breakout Session Application Form

Deadline: February 1

Alliance Northwest attracts over 900 attendees: the who's who of federal and state government contracting. In addition to two keynote speakers, there are up to nine breakout sessions at the conference that allow experts in government contracting to share best practices, information on regulations, registrations or certifications. Each session attracts 75-125 attendees who are a mix of small business and prime contractors.

The event planning committee seeks speakers and topics that will meet the following objectives:

- Attract attendees to the conference
- Educate the attendee on a pertinent government contracting topic
- Provide the attendee with enough information so that they are more likely to find, bid, win, and perform successfully on a government contract or subcontract.

Speakers that are selected to present will be expected to provide a workshop description, photo and bio by February 1st for inclusion in the printed program. This form should be returned ASAP as applications are reviewed as they come in.
